Cabiness, Charles

Eagle Lake, Dec. 2.--Two negroes, Charles Cabiniss and Manuel Allen, who were under arrest and charged with robbing a Mexican at Matthews, and who were brought here and incarcerated in the calaboose to await removal to the Columbus jail, were cremated by the calaboose catching fire at 1 o'clock this morning. All available efforts were faultless to rescue the two inmates. The sight was hideous to behold. The two unfortunates frantically raved and prayed as gradually the fiery tongues engulfed the iron cage which held the victims. In a short time both succumbed to the intense heat, falling on their faces, where their bodies were nearly consumed. In the presence of wiling hands they perished, the heat too intense to liberate them.

GEORGE CAUSEY DIED SUDDENLY AT HOME IN LISSIE EARLY TODAY

Daughter Of Loved Citizen Of Lissie Finds Body Of Father Slumped In Lot At His Home At 7 O'clock This Morning

Rev. George Causey, 74 years of age, a loved citizen of Lissie, died suddenly at his home shortly after 7 o'clock this, Friday, morning.

Mr. Causey, apparently in his usual health, left the house to go to the lot to milk, as was his custom. Not having returned to the house in the usual time, his daughter, Miss Anna Mae Causey, a teacher in the Lissie schools, went to the lot and there found the body of her father slumped to the ground. The body was still warm. Dr. L. C. Wozencraft of Eagle Lake was summoned and pronounced death due to heart failure.

George Washington Causey was born in Vandalla, Illinois, July 20, 1857. When eighteen years of age he moved with his parents to Ennis, Texas, from which place he moved to San Antonio where he preached to the soldiers at Government Hill.

He was married on October 29, 1889, to Miss Lydia Arnold of San Antonio, who preceded him in death in 1908.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Causey moved from Ennis to Sherman in 1905, where he was pastor of the Evangelical church, and the following year they moved to Lissie where he served as pastor of the Evangelical hospital two weeks.

She was part owner of Cady Transit Mix in Weimar, which her late husband had founded.

Born October 30, 1920, at Borden, she was a daughter of William and Julie (Mazoch) Ermis. She was married to Otis C. Cady on October 24, 1939, in Weimar. He died in 1967.

She is survived by one son Gary R. Cady of Columbus: two grandchildren, Mindy Lynn and Holly Marie Cady, of Columbus: four brothers, Ignac, William, and John (Peewee) Ermis of Weimar and Victor Ermis of New Braunfels: and two sisters, Mrs. John L. (Lillie) Saha of Sealy (Frydek) and Mrs. Robert (Cecilia) Miksch of Weimar.

Carlton, William H.

The death of Mr. W. H. Carlton, which occurred last Saturday night at his home near Columbus, was a painful though not unexpected event, to his many friends in his city, he having been in very bad health and not expected to live, for many weeks prior to his demise. In the death of Mr. "Buck" Carlton, as he was familiarly known, Colorado county has lost a useful and valued citizen. Of quiet disposition, with no desire to thrust himself into notice, few people realized his worth. Of his thousands of deeds of charity the world will never know, for he ever sought to conceal them, but the widows and orphans of the

In 1918, Mr. Causey and family again moved to Lissie where he served as pastor until his resignation three years ago, when he retired from active ministry.

Mr. Causey was loved by all who knew him and his sudden death is a shock to the community.

He is survived by six children, Mrs. Clara Thomas, of Lissie, Miss Ruth Causey, of Livingston, county demonstration agent for Polk county, Miss Anna Mae Causey of Lissie and Miss Lydia Causey of Los Angeles, California, and two sons, Charles and Edward Causey of Lissie, who have the sincere sympathy of all our people in their irreparable loss.

Canady, Joe F.

EAGLE LAKE MAN FOUND DEAD WITH A BULLET IN HEART

Eagle Lake, Texas, Nov. 22.--J. F. Canaday, 55, a resident here for more than 30 years, was found in his room at the Henry Beckman home early Friday with a bullet wound through his heart. The door was barred with a chair.

A muffled report was heard, but nothing was thought of it at the time, Mr. Beckman said, until Canady failed to appear for lunch. The door then was forced open and Canady's body found on the bed with a pistol, from which one bullet had been fired, at his side.

Three notes were found, one telling of financial trouble. Another was left to J. M. Evoritt of Lissie, with whom Canady was interested in raising fine stock. The third note was to O. J. Wintermann, directing that all his debts be paid with the insurance money and that funeral expense not be over

Toucheck reported that he had just passed the Altair bridge, going east, at 11 p.m., when he saw two cars parked beside the road "in unusual fashion." He slowed, and as he passed, he heard what sounded like a shot. Then he saw someone running toward the cars.

He turned around to investigate, and as he was radioing his position to the sheriff's office before leaving his car, a woman ran to his car pleading, "Help me. She's going to kill me." Toucheck put her in the back seat of the patrol car and approached the other cars.

Finding the wounded Carroll on the ground, he called the sheriff who went to the scene along with a Highway Patrol unit and other deputies.

Toucheck said Carroll and the Toliver woman had been riding in separate cars, each with a woman passenger, Mary Garza of Louise had ridden with the woman, Eddie Marie Shropshire of Eagle Lake with Carroll. It was the latter who appealed to the deputy for help. Carroll was interred in the [Alleyn Cemetery.]

The Toliver woman would give no statement, but statements were taken from both the other women as witnesses of the shooting. A .38-caliber pistol was recovered at the scene.

Van-Train Crash Kills 4 Siblings

The four children of Alton and Cheryl Chadwick, Borden area residents, were killed Friday when an eastbound Southern Pacific freight train hit their van at a crossing a few yards from their home.

Adding poignancy to the tragedy was that the children were going home after finishing swimming lessons in Weimar to prepare a celebration of their mother's birthday.

They had nearly reached their home at 10:50 a.m. on county road 209 when the 1988 Chevrolet van driven by 15 year-old Stephanie Chadwick failed to stop for the eastbound train, which was estimated to be traveling at 50 miles an hour.

The train's conductor told investigating DPS Trooper James Bonewitz that the van was approaching the crossing slowly but appeared to be making it across.

The impact sent the van airborne, Bonewitz said, and carried it two-tenths of a mile down the track.

Killed instantly were Stephanie Chadwick, 15; her sister Angela, 12, and brothers Alton Jr., 7, and Joshua, 5.

Final Rites for Roman Chamrad, 71, Held Today

Funeral services for Roman Chamrad, 71, who died late Tuesday evening in Youens Hospital after a long illness, were held this (Thursday) morning at Hubbard Funeral Home and St. Michael's Catholic Church, with Msgr. A. F. Drozd officiating.

Burial was in the church cemetery.

Poor health had caused Mr. Chamrad to retire from business five years ago, and he had been seriously ill about two years.

He had lived in the Weimar area 43 years, first as a farmer, later establishing the Roadside Market, east of town, which he operated for 20 years.

Born Feb 28, 1886, in Moravia, Czechoslovakia, he came to this country when he was 21 years old, settling in Dubina. On May 2, 1911, he married Miss Margaret Fojtik at Thurber, Texas. After a short while there they moved to Wood County, then to Weimar in 1914.

Mr. Chamrad became well known to many Weimar people after he opened his Roadside Market on old Highway 90. He and his family raised the vegetables and most of the other products they sold, and the business flourished. When the highway "moved" to the new route, the Market moved with it, and became a combination of grocery store, cafe and service station.

When his health failed five years ago, Mr. Chamrad sold the business to his son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Raabe, who only last month sold it to a new owner.

He led a career with the O.J. and David Winter-mann Families of Eagle Lake and was a member of the Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Eagle Lake.

He was preceded in death by his parents and wife.

He is survived by his daughter, Christina Castle Williams and husband, Wilbert, of Eagle Lake; sisters, Dorothy Tumer and Patricia Huckeba; grandchildren, John Thomas, Sr. and wife, Terrie of Angleton, Shaneiqua Moody of Eagle Lake; great-grandchildren, John Thomas, Jr. and Javon Thomas, both of Houston, Chikey Hobbs and Paris Hobbs, both of Angleton; and other relatives.

Funeral services are scheduled for 12 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 14, from the Greater Mt. Olive Baptist Church of Eagle Lake with the Rev. Thomas E. Kuykendall, pastor, officiating. Interment will follow in the Eagle Lake Community Cemetery North.

Visitation will be from Dulany Funeral Home from 8 a.m.-8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 13, and 8-10 a.m. Saturday.

Causey, Charles W.

C. W. Causey Is Victim Of Stroke Tuesday Night Community Grieves His Sudden Death While Attending Public Meeting

Citizens of Eagle Lake were shocked and grieved to learn of the sudden death of Charles W. Causey, 59, Tuesday night while attending a public meeting called by the city council to discuss the installation of dial telephones.

Mr. Causey joined other citizens present at the meeting in presenting facts and asking questions of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company representatives.

At 9:30 he suddenly suffered a stroke. Citizens at the meeting did everything possible to be of assistance and the Eagle Lake Volunteer Fire Department resusciator under the direction of A. H. Dipple, was brought to use almost immediately; however, all efforts were futile and when Dr. J. C. Laughlin since that time, have always found her a quiet, sweet spirited, consistent Christian woman. She exemplified in her life, the religion of Christ. Her health was delicate for many years, but her last sickness continued only a few days. The disease settled on the brain, rendering her unconscious, so that she left no dying testimony, but a life of 60 years of faith in Christ, with such works as are the fruit of faith, is worth more than a few words which might be spoken, just at the end of the journey. She often spoke of her approaching departure when in usual health, and always expressed a willingness, and readiness to depart with Christ, which is far better. The loved ones left on earth are poorer, those she meets in heaven are richer. Her body sleeps in Walker grave yard [Pleasant Grove], six miles west of Columbus, until the trump that wakes the dead shall sound, and there our God shall make all things new.

Death of John Charbula, Sr.

Again we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of Weimar's old and honored citizens, that of John Charbula, Sr. which occurred[sic] at his residence in this city Wednesday night about 12 o'clock after a brief illness of paralysis with which he was stricken only a few days ago, but from which he never rallied.

He was part owner and served as manager of the Lakeside Elevator and Grain Company and was prominently associated with providing better and larger rice drying and storage facilities for the community.

He was born in San Antonio and in 1908 the Causey family moved to the Lissie community. There he and his family resided until a fire destroyed their home. LITTLE GIRL DROWNED NEAR TOWN WEDNESDAY

A couple by the name of Mr. and Mrs. Louis [Alois] Chavtil [Chavtil], living on the Chas. Fahrenthold farm a short distance northeast of town, had quite a misfortune befall them Wednesday afternoon

The have several small children, and while the older members of the family were busy with household duties, the children wandered down to the creek which traverses Mr. Fahrenthold's farm and were playing in the water. One of he little girls, 2 years old, strayed off from the others, and while evidently reaching over to fill her bucket with water from one of the pools, fell headforemost into the creek and was drowned.

It is believed the other children, all small, saw the child struggling in the water, but did not realize she was drowning. When her absence was noted by the family and the body recovered, she had been dead some time.

The little form was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows'-Masonic Cemetery Thursday morning.

Cherry, William Richard

WILLIAM R. CHERRY

Deepest regret and sympathy have been expressed by the many friends of Mrs. Ellen Cherry and Mrs. Allen Stinnett, who have recently received the tragic news of the untimely death of their son and brother, William R. Cherry.

He was born in Eagle Lake, Texas, March 5, 1895, where he spent his boyhood days, until his mother came to make her home in Bay City with Mrs. Allen Stinnett, since which time he called this place home.

After spending two years in New Mexico for his health, he came home for a few days before registration day and volunteered for military service. His enlistment in Houston only showed his deep consideration for those who held him closest.

After training at Paris Island, South Carolina, for two months, he was sent to Quantico, Va., and while there was among the 100 boys selected on account of personal merit, to fill a unit for overseas service, which sailed October 31, 1917.

The following is taken from a printed Xmas program used by his company (97th, 6th Reg.), giving an accurate account of the battles in which he saw active service: Verdun Sector, March 15 to May 15, 1918; Chateau-Thierry, June 1 to July 16, 1918; Soissons, July 17 to July 23, 1918; St. Miheil, September 11 - September 25, 1918; Champagne, October 1 - October 10, 1918; Argonne, November 1 - November 11, 1918; march to the Rhine, November 17 - December 11, 1918.

Through all of these battles he received only one wound and wrote often of his desire to come home, after having done his part.

His death occurred on February 13 from broncho-pneumonia. He would have been 24 years old on March 5 of this year.

There seems to remain some consolation in the words, "Lay down sweet one, and take thy rest, God called thee home; He thought it best!"

BODY BEING BROUGHT BACK.
Remains of Will Cherry En Route From France.

Mrs. Ellen Cherry of Bay City, formerly of this city, has received notice from the government that the remains of her son, William Cherry, who died at one of the base hospitals in Germany of pneumonia, brought on from effects of being gassed while at the front, were now en route from their temporary burying place in Germany to Eagle Lake, where they will be given final burial by the side of relatives in the cemetery here. Will died just a little more than a year ago, and until now has slept beneath the sod in Germany. His mother, who idolized her boy, wanted him buried here where other relatives are buried. If information can be secured, the Headlight will give notice a week in advance of the arrival of the remains for we know all of our people will want to pay a last respect to one of our city's fine, handsome and most excellent boys, who paid the supreme sacrifice in a foreign land for his country's sake. It will likely be several weeks before the remains reach here.--Eagle Lake Headlight.

Body Of Will Cherry Had Not Reached Here Up To This Morning

The body of Will Cherry who died in France of pneumonia, and which was shipped from New York last Thursday had not reached here at the time this article is written[sic], Thursday.

The remains will be interred here with military honors by the American Legion, but until the body reaches here full arrangements for the funeral can not be made.

The body is over due here now, but it is learned by the American Legion Post that all bodies for this section of the state are being shipped from New York to Camp Pike and reshipped from that camp to their destinations for burial. Owing to the shortage of men at Camp Pike it may possibly be several days before the casket reaches here.

The funeral will be held under the auspices of the American Legion and full announcement will be made by that order on the bulletin board at the postoffice as soon as the casket reaches here. Interment will be made in the Masonic cemetery in which the family has a burying lot. Should the remains reach here in time, the funeral will be held Sunday and all American Legion men and ex-service men are requested to watch the postoffice bulletin board closely for funeral announcements.

FUNERAL OF WILL CHERRY
LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

(Eagle Lake Headlight)

The funeral of Will Cherry, son of Mrs. Ellen Cherry of Bay City, who died overseas while serving with the army of occupation in Germany, was held here last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion.

Members of the American Legion marched with the hearse from the undertaking parlor to the Catholic Church where Rev. George Berberich of Mentz conducted the services, paying a splendid tribute to the dead soldier boy after which the procession formed and marched to the Masonic Cemetery where Rev. Father Ludwig preached a beautiful funeral sermon after which the casket was lowered into the grave over which the firing sound of the local American Legion post fired a salute of three shots after which the post's bugler sounded taps.

Will Cherry was born and raised in Eagle Lake and spent practically all of his life here. A few years before the war started he went to Arizona for his health and lived there about three years. War having been declared against Germany, and he having fully regained his health while in Arizona, he returned to Eagle Lake and at once enlisted in the marines and after a short training course went overseas where he saw much active service. He contracted pneumonia and died of that disease while serving with the army of occupation in Germany.

The funeral ceremony was a beautiful and impressive one and was largely attended, both at the church and at the grave, the church being large enough to accommodate hardly more than half of the crowd.

Chesnut, Hazella (Hutchins)

Hazella Hutchins Chesnut, formerly of Columbus and Rock Island, died in Houston, Texas, October 30, 1906. She was the daughter of Cornelius and Jane (Hooper) Hutchins, and the granddaughter of Merritt and Elizabeth (Stevens) Hutchins who came to Texas from North Carolina. Merritt served Columbus as sheriff during the period of the Republic.

Hazella met and married James David Chesnut in Columbus and their first child was born there in 1899. Seven years later, the couple and their three children, the youngest an infant, were situated in Houston Heights. James had almost completed the purchase of a cottage and several lots. He was succeeding well as a skilled carpenter. But, all was not well with Hazella, especially in the months following the birth of the last child. Hazella's untimely death at the age of 29 came as a grievous blow to her immediate and extended family and all others who knew this pretty and sensitive little lady. James and other family members buried the tragedy in their hearts and spoke seldom about the painful memories surrounding their loss of a dear wife and mother.

The young couple had been well-liked by their Houston neighbors and several friends immediately rallied to assist widower James with care of the children, as did grandmother Jane Hutchins. Nevertheless, not many months had passed before the baby followed her mother in death. In subsequent years, Jane continued to travel from Columbus down to Houston for helpful visits at the Chesnut household. The two surviving children were Nettie Jane and David Cornelius. James never remarried.

Hazella's body was returned to Rock Island for burial. (Cemetery unknown, possibly Myrtle.)

He died in beauty! like a pearl
Dropped from some diadem.
He died in beauty! like a lay
Along a moonlit lake;
He died in beauty! like the song

He died in beauty! like the snow
On flowers dissolved away;
He died in beauty! like a star
Lost on the brow of day.
He lives to glory! like night’s gems

Chew, Joseph Aldridge

Mr. J. A. Chew Died AT His Home In This City Last Friday; Funeral Saturday Popular and Well Known Citizen of Eagle Lake Passed Away Last Friday Afternoon.

The people of our city and community were saddened when they learned on last Friday afternoon of the death of Mr. J. A. Chew.

Mr. Chew had been in ill health for the past several months and was critically ill for several days prior to his death.

Mr. Chew had been a resident of Eagle Lake for about eight years, though he was in and around this community for some years before moving to this city, he having been a resident of Colorado county for about fifteen years. He was a most pleasant and an agreeable man, always in good humor and always had a pleasant, friendly word for every one he met. Mr. Chew was a good man, attended strictly to his own business affairs and enjoyed the respect and esteem of all our people. Every one liked him and his pleasant, agreeable manner made friends for him wherever he went. He is a man we have never heard ill spoke of, and his death is sincerely regretted.

Joseph Aldridge Chew was born in Charlestown, West Virginia in 1851, and would have been 68 years of age on the first day of the coming June. He was twice married, his first wife who was formerly Miss Mary McIntosh of Bryan, Texas, preceded him in death twenty-eight years ago, and to that union were born three children. Mrs. Frances Clark, John A. Chew and Miss Sarah West Chew, all of whom are living in New York.

Mr. Chew was again married in 1890 in Washington, D. C. to Miss Mary Kean, a Virginian, who with their seven children, survive him. The children are, Miss Regina, Miss Alice, Miss Agnes, Paul, Miss Helen, Fred and Morris.

The family moved from Virginia to Bryan, Texas, where they resided for about six years, moving from that city to Colorado County and locating at Columbus, where they remained for another six years, moving to Eagle Lake eight years ago. While the family resided in Columbus, Mr. Chew was a frequent visitor to Eagle Lake and this section spending much of his time here.

The funeral was held from the family residence in this city Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment being made in the Lakeside cemetery. The funeral services at the home and the grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Banks, the Episcopal rector at Cuero, formerly rector of the Eagle Lake Episcopal church.

The pallbearers were Messrs Walter Little, Natt Holman, Herbert Matthews, J. H. Morgan, Max Conner and H. A. Douglass.

In the passing of Mr. Chew, Eagle Lake has lost another of its good citizens, a friend to every one, a kind husband and a loving tender father.

To the sorrowing relatives, the Headlight joins their many friends in extending to them in their hour of deep sorrow, its sincerest sympathy.

Chinn, Hal W.

Death and Burial Of H. W. Chinn.

From Edgar Chinn, who returned Tuesday from Perdue Hill, Ala., with the body of his father, H. W. Chinn, who mysteriously disappeared in Houston the latter part of January, we glean additional particulars regarding this mysterious case. Edgar arrived at Purdue Hill Friday of last week, and from the effects of the deceased was soon absolutely positive that it was his father. The watch, ring, clothing, etc., were identified in an instant. The body was exhumed Sunday afternoon, it being necessary to order a metal casket from Selma, some distance away, to transport the remains to Weimar. From the people of Purdue Hill he gleaned many particulars regarding his father's arrival there, his habits, etc. The deceased undoubtedly, after leaving Houston, went to New Orleans, thence to Tampa, Fla., Birmingham, Mobile, and afterwards to Perdue Hill, arriving there Feb. 10. He embarked in business shortly after his arrival at that point and was doing well, but having taken up the habit of drinking it brought on an old complaint in the nature of acute gastritis and Bright's disease, and this caused his death after one week's illness. He was warned by the attending physician that he was a very sick man, and that he had better give the address of his family or relatives, but he persisted to the last that he had no relatives.

After his death, which occurred Sunday morning, April 2, the attending physician, Dr. G. Walter Gaillard, feeling certain that there was some mystery about the man, had the remains photographed, and from these photographs it is easy to identify the dead man as Mr. Chinn. Perdue Hill is a small place of about 300 people, and is fifteen miles distant from the railroad. The body arrived Tuesday afternoon, and although in a swollen and blackened condition, there were numerous features easily recognizable to his intimate friends. The remains were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows' cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

In the death of H. W. Chinn, this section loses one of its best citizens. Few people, indeed, knew him but to admire him. He was by all regarded as one of nature's noblemen, a typical southern gentleman, gentle as a child, brave as a lion, and one whom to know was to esteem. He was a resident of this place for a number of years, and if he had an enemy we know not of it. He was a model son, husband, and father, and while it will never be understood in this life what caused him to suddenly leave family and friends it is the universal opinion that it was a case of mental aberration. The writer had known Mr. Chinn for a number of years, regarded him as one of the truest gentlemen he ever met, and feels keenly the loss of such a dear friend. Words are inadequate to express our sympathy with the family in the loss they have sustained, and this feeling is shared by the entire citizenship of this community. God pity and comfort them is the sincere wish of all.

Former Weimar Lady Dies at Houston

Mrs. H. W. Chinn, former respected Weimar lady, widow of the late Colonel H. W Chinn, died in Houston Thursday of last week. and the remains were brought here Friday noon for interment beside the grave of her husband, in the Odd Fellows Cemetery. Mrs. Chinn was 68 years of age at time of death. Touching funeral services were held at the grave by Rev. Jos. Szymanski of St. Michael's Church.

Following the death of her husband a good many years ago Mrs. Chinn and her children moved to Houston. and she made her home there up to the time of her death. Many old time friends remember Mrs. Chinn as an estimable, good woman, a kind friend and neighbor and possessed of a large circle of friends when she resided here. Her death is sincerely deplored.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. T. J. Thomas of Freeport and Mrs. E. Murdy of Glendale, Calif.; four sons, Edgar C. Chinn, John S. Chinn and Guy A. Chinn, all of Houston, and Hal W. Chinn of Glendale, Calif.; two sisters and one brother, all of Brazoria.

Christal, John "Cuney"

Son Of Colored Man Here Is Burned To Death In El Paso Body Of Cuney Christal, Son Of Dick Christal; Found In Basement Of El Paso Hotel Where He Worked, After Fire.

John Christal, colored, 36 years of age, son of Dick Christal of Eagle Lake, was burned to death in a hotel fire at El Paso early Thursday morning of last week.

Dick Christal was notified by telegram late Friday of his son's death, but on wiring El Paso for further details, was unable to get any authentic information, the police department wiring him further "that they were investigating."

That reports on the tragedy were confusing are explained in newspaper clippings and notations which reached the Headlight in yesterday's mail from the news editor of the El Paso Herald-Post, the Scripps-Howard publication of that city.

According to the clippings sent the Headlight, the El Paso papers first reported the name of the negro burned to death in the fire as that of John Miles, who was a porter at the Hotel Carlyle where the fire originated shortly after 3 o'clock in the morning. The confusion was made possible by the fact that the dead man was known to his employers and around the hotel as only "John" or "Johnny." The undertakers, where the body was taken, gave further explanation that a negro who came to the undertaking parlor for the purpose, identified the body as that of John Miles, porter at the hotel. Miles and Christal, both of whom were employees at the hotel, were good friends, the newspaper reports stated.

It was not known until a day after the fire that the dead man was Christal, not until John Miles, the negro reported dead in the fire, walked up to George Turner, negro cook at the Tri-County hospital. Turner was so startled when Miles, who had been reported dead, walked up to him and began talking that he started to flee, according to the newspaper reports. The El Paso editor writes at the bottom of the sheet on which the clippings are pasted that the body is being held for instructions from his father at Eagle Lake.

Christal in Eagle Lake as "Cuney" Christal. He left Eagle Lake about twelve years ago and has been making his home in El Paso since that time.

The fire started in a box of trash under the stairs of the hotel basement. It spread quickly to other basements and was burning through the first floor of the hotel when firemen brought it under control. Smoke filled the upper floors of the hotel and threw the guests into panic.

"Cuney's" partly burned body was discovered in the basement of the hotel after the fire had been extinguished. He had been sleeping in the basement near the stairs where the fire started. Chief Sullivan said he probably was overcome by smoke and then burned to death by the flames from the stair-case. "Cuney" was cook and chauffeur at the hotel.

Campbell, Amey L. (McMillan)

A sad death was reported from the Osage community early Tuesday morning, that of Mrs. John Campbell, who died at 10 o'clock Monday night. Mrs. Campbell had been in ill health for five months, and while laboring under a temporary derangement due to her long suffering she took poison on that fatal morning, suffering intensely until death relieved her at 10 o'clock that night. She realized her awful mistake when too late, and begged those around her to save her. Everything possible was done to counteract the effects of the poison, but to no avail. She leaves a bereaved husband and two little children, to whom the heartfelt sympathy of all our people is extended. The funeral took place at Osage cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Colorado County Citizen,

Campbell, Kern

A negro man by the name of Kern Campbell, was killed near Weimar Sunday night by being run over by one of the west bound trains about 9 o'clock at night. It seems that this poor unfortunate fellow was addicted to drinking, was in town Sunday evening, had been drinking, started home, and must have gone to sleep on the track, at the foot of the heavy grade near here, and was lying in such a position that the engineer could not see what it was till he was right upon him; and could he have seen him no earthly power could have stopped the train coming down the grade like it was. When the train passed over him the engineer said he heard the bones crushing, still could not tell whether it was a man or an animal but thought it was a man. After getting to Weimar reported to the agent, who immediately went to the place, and found the mangled remains of this poor fellow. He was literally crushed to pieces. Had it not been for the head it would been impossible to recognize who is was. No blame can be attached to the railroad. An inquest was held and verdict in accordance with the above facts. A very sad accident befell Jim Cambell[sic] Sunday morning. While attending to a young horse it became angry and kicked Mr. Campbell in the abdomen, causing a severe hurt. The doctor was summoned at once, and Sunday evening he was resting easy and up til Monday morning, when he gradually grew worse until about 1:30 when the end came. It was indeed hard to give him up in this unexpected hour, but the good Lord giveth life and He also taketh life, and He willed that Mr. Campbell should join his band of angels above where there is no suffering, sorrow nor parting. Mr. Campbell had lived in and around this section for forty or fifty years, and a better hearted man could be found no where. He was always ready to lend a helping hand and was the best of husbands and fathers. His friends were as numerous as the sands of the seashore and it is with a sad heart they give him up. He leaves a widow and ten children to mourn his death, three having gone to that better home above. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in this sad hour. The funeral will take place this (Tuesday) eve in the Borden cemetery at 3 o'clock.

Miss Lula Campbell died at her home in Borden last Saturday morning after a long and painful illness, being confined to her bed for six months. Miss Lula was truly a patient, submissive sufferer, though suffering agonies she never complained, but often expressed herself as willing to suffer, yea die, if it be God's will. She seemed to have no fear of death, and conscious of approaching dissolution, she called for all her dear ones to bid them a last farewell, and to ask them to meet her in Heaven. When her young life appeared happiest, and the future seemed full of joy, the reaper came, and

"Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care,
The open bud to Heaven conveyed,
And bade it blossom there."

Words cannot express the grief of the loved ones, and human sympathy cannot console them for Lula's loss. God's own love and knowledge that she is with Him will alone palliate their sorrow. The family have the sympathy of all. Interment in [Borden Cemetery]

Campbell, Peter F.

Pete Campbell Killed

An unfortunate and deplorable tragedy was enacted in this city last Saturday night at H. F. Juergens' saloon. At or about the hour of 12, Peter F. Campbell, a well-known brick and rock mason of this city, entered the saloon. Mr. Juergens was playing with a 38-calibre pistol at the time and in a spirit of fun remarked that he would shoot Campbell's hat off his head. Juergens is a fine shot, but probably never will he have cause to be proud of the fact, for, as he fired, the bullet went too low, and instead of only striking the hat, it went through same and ploughed a hole into and through the brain of the unfortunate and inoffensive man. The shot produced a complete paralysis of the body, and in this condition the poor fellow lingered until Monday night about 8:30, when his spirit winged its flight unto its Maker. Mr. Juergens was immediately placed under arrest, and, brought home and on Tuesday afternoon were laid to rest in the Osage Cemetery, Rev. J. C. Wilson, Methodist pastor, officiating in a touching burial service, assisted by Rev. C. E. Dearman, local Baptist pastor. Many relatives and friends from a distance were present to pay the last sad tribute of respect a most worthy lady.

Mrs. Campbell (nee Moore) was born May 22, 1867, near Osage. Died Dec. 8, 1924. She was married to Mr. Fred C. Campbell in June, 1884. Four children were born to this union -- one son and three daughters -- all of whom survive. A heartbroken husband, four brothers and two sisters are also the surviving relatives.

Mrs. Campbell was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church, a good, consistent christian woman, a devoted wife and mother, and one of the best of neighbors, ever willing and ready to respond to the call for help in sickness and distress. She was a most lovable woman in every sense of the term, and her death is deeply and sincerely deplored by all.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to her bereaved ones in the heavy loss they have sustained.

Having lived here in his earlier days, he was quite well known to many of our people, who regarded him as a noble young man, honest, upright, sincere, moral, and in every way an exceptionally bright and interesting young man. His death is sincerely deplored. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

pending the result of the wounds, was carried to Columbus to jail Sunday afternoon. He was brought before Judge C. T. Hancock for his examining trial Tuesday afternoon, but waived examination and was released under $3000 bond to await the action of the grand jury, which was readily given with Geo. Herder and S. H. Hancock as sureties. Mr. Juergens is deeply affected over the result of the unfortunate affair. It was unintentional on his part to harm a hair of poor Pete's head, and the wounding and death of the poor, unfortunate fellow has almost prostrated him. He had able physicians give the man every attention and comfort, and poor Pete was given a decent burial Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic cemetery. The affair provoked a great deal of criticism in this city where both parties are well-known, and while the fact that both men were friendly and no enmity existed, proving conclusively that it was accidental, still Mr. Juergens' action in carelessly shooting at an inoffensive man to display his marksmanship, has been severely censured, and we do not believe the accused man can blame the public for so thinking. It was an unfortunate, careless, regrettable accident.

WEIMAR LOCAL MATTERS

One of the most deplorable accidents occurred here Saturday night that has caused great feelings of sorrow for all parties concerned. The particulars as can be best learned at this writing are: Mr. Peter Campbell, a well known rock mason who has lived in and around this vicinity for many years, walked into Mr. Henry Juergen's saloon between 11 and 12 that made in the Osage Cemetery.

Mr. Campbell had been in ill health for the past six months or more, and most of this time had been confined to his bed. He was 78 years, 8 months of age.

A son of Robert M. and Sarah Elizabeth Campbell, he was born August 11, 1864, at Fancyville [Dancyville] Tenn. He came to Texas with his parents at the age of 7 years, the family settling in the Osage community. Here Mr. Campbell spent the greater part of his life. For the past several years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. J. O. Sanders at Oakland.

He was married to Miss Elizabeth H. Moore, daughter of the late C. B. and Winnie A Moore in June 1884. To this union five children were born.

Mr. Campbell joined the Methodist Church at Osage on Jan. 1, 1905. He became an active official of the church and served as trustee for a number of years.

His wife died Dec. 5, 1924.

Survivors include four children, Mrs. Hallie Graves of San Antonio, Mrs. Annie Sanders of Oakland, Mrs. Irene Miles of Weimar, Elmer D. Campbell of Sealy; five grandchildren, Lee, Milton, and Raymond Graves, Joseph Duvé Miles, Warren F. Campbell, one great-grandson, Frank Lee Graves.

The Mercury extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

night. Mr. Juerens playfully remarked "Pete, I can shoot your hat off without hurting you," to which the unfortunate man remarked, "you can't do it." Mr. Juerens presented the pistol which went off the ball striking Mr. Campbell directly in the middle of the forehead. A physician was immediately sent for who probed for the ball but has not located it directly at this time. The sufferer is in a very critical condition and it is thought he will die. Mr. Juergens deeply deploras the act and has ordered everything done for the comfort of his wounded friend; has secured the best medical attentions, employed a nurse and insists that every thing must be done to alleviae the sufferings of the unfortunate man.

George Clothier

Source B: Later, we discovered a listing for a Pvt. G. E. Clothier which appears in Anna Gayle Fry's book, Memories of Old Cahaba, on page 109 in the Roster of the "Cahaba Rifles", Company F, Fifth Alabama Regiment, C. S. A., as follows: "enlisted 10 Apr. 1861 at Cahaba by Capt. C. C. Pegues for one year; wounded in battle 1 Jul 1862 at Malvern Hill, VA; disabled for further service." This lent credence to the "fellow veteran" theory above.

Source C: A search of the 1880 census revealed only one (of 22 persons of this name) who was b. in AL or in AL in 1880:

Name: George CLOTHIER
Age: 38
Estimated birth year: <1842>
Birthplace: Alabama
Occupation: Book Keeper
Relation: Self
Home in 1880: Galveston, Galveston, Texas
Marital status: Married
Race: White
Gender: Male
Head of household: George CLOTHIER
Father's birthplace: VA
Mother's birthplace: SC

This told us much new information about George Clothier but still didn't give us a good explanation as to why he was included in the book.

Source D: I located and spoke by telephone with Dr. Grant M. Clothier of Prairie Village, Kansas. [Dr. Clothier, a six-year Navy veteran of WW2 and following, enjoyed a career in education that has spanned five decades in Kansas and Missouri, culminating with his being named director and president, respectively, of two different educational organizations. Entering his eightieth year, he still serves as co-editor of The Clothier Chronicles, a family newsletter published twice a year.] Dr. Clothier graciously sent me the following items and his permission to publish them here--thank you, Sir! :-)

1. Letter from George E. Clothier to the Editor of an unknown and undated newspaper (emphasis mine):

THE VETERAN AND MERCURIUS.

Wherein the Youthful Reunion
Orator's Niche Is Pointed Out

TO THE EDITOR:

The writer enlisted as a Confederate soldier in the spring of '61; was mustered in as a private soldier at Pensacola, Fla., by General Bragg; was a member of the Cahaba rifles, Fifth Alabama regiment; enrolled at the same time and with Senator John T. Morgan and has now in my possession a letter from Senator Morgan certifying to my faithfulness as a soldier. I was shot down at Malvern Hill, Va.; lay in the hospital at Richmond three months; nursed back almost from death to life by my mother; carried home to Alabama on a litter. It was eight months from the time I was shot to the time I could first touch my left foot to the ground. This in brief is our war record. No better and perhaps not as good as thousands of my comrades. I have little taste for display or buncombe. My conviction is that the church of Jesus Christ is the biggest thing on earth and covers all the demands in my nature as an organization and is supreme, so much so to me, that others, however worthy, count for little. This is my peculiarity--that chills the enthusiasm in me which I do not condemn in others. I was a soldier when not to be was a disgrace if able to bear arms. It was a time when nothing else was expected of a man, for it was even difficult to hold some of the women back. If the same demand was upon us today that was in my day we can more than duplicate the prowess of the old Confederate soldier in our sons and our daughters. My recollection of the youth of my day leads me to believe they are outclassed in our youth of today. We have not retrograded in our progeny, but have advanced all along the line. This is the simple truth.

Why, look at the conditions of today. See how the old veteran is honored and cared for. Is it not because of the reverence and love of his sons and daughters? Surely they are the legislators and voters that make provision for the old veteran. Yes, give the old fellow a good time; cheer him in his few remaining years and make his life as pleasant as possible. This were double honor, not only to the old soldier, but to your filial love. Mercurius, what about him? Why he's the son of a veteran, but he is different from the ordinary son because he has sprouted wings. The old veteran just dotes on him. He is in demand at all of the reunions. Mercurius is the orator, poet, painter all combined. He tells the old veterans how he did it and thrills them with the account of his brave exploits. He carries the old soldiers back to the ensanguined field where he hears the roar of cannon and cracking of rifles. He opens before his mind the opposing columns and, like a moving picture, displays the glory of a raging conflict. This is the battle where the old veteran wins, and the rebel yell makes the echoes that die out while embracing the eloquent Mercurius. Well, thank the Lord for the old veteran and for Mercurius; but build the platform strong, for it must stand a strain--a strain of eloquence, a strain of responding enthusiasm. Even bronze must have a foundation.

Let these occasions with their memories come and go, and let the old soldiers meet from time to time--at every meet the roll is lessened; some old soldier passed over the river to rest under the shade of the trees. Let Mercurius get his inspiration from these gray-headed fathers of Mars, and may they drink the eloquence as new wine until their spirits are renewed and refreshed and the old yell of victory be heard all over the land.

Geo. E. Clothier.

Subject: George English Clothier

I was just cruising on your web page and found the picture of George English Clothier. I saw you were trying to figure out his links to the Gwins so I jumped onto Ancestry.com and found quite a bit of data:

George's dob is July 1842.

In 1850 he was living with both of his parents in Monroe Co., AL. His father George was age 36 and born in Virginia. His mother is listed as Sarah M. age 34 born in SC. This census lists an older sister, I think it says Virginia, who would have been born in 1840 in AL. It lists the other children as George E., Sarah E., Mary B. and John, who was 11 mo old on Nov 29, 1850.

In 1860 he was living in Athens, Dallas Co., Alabama, with his mother Sarah, age 44, born in SC, and with his siblings Sarah E. Clothier age 15, Mary B. Clothier age 13, and John Clothier age 10.

The Rest of the Story?

[JMG Note: Thank you so much, Cousin Mike, for sending all these good data. Since George lived in Athens in 1860 has triggered a thought: this may be the connection why his picture is in Martha's photo album. So I'll step in here and insert the following copied from my webpage for our first cousin thrice removed, Martha R. Gwin H and piece together in this note what may be "the rest of the story."

Martha grew up in Athens, too, and likely went to school with this George Clothier he was less than a year older than she. Perhaps they were only good friends--or perhaps she was romantically attracted to him (and perhaps he to her!). And yet when things were warming up for war in September 1860, she, then 17, opted for the older man--twice her age--Matt Holley, 33.

Some seven months later on 10 Apr 1861, while Martha was starting her second trimester with daughter Minnie, George, not yet 19, enlisted in the Cahaba Rifles, went off to war, and, on or about his 20th birthday in July 1862, received a disabling wound while fighting for General R. E. Lee (whose picture is also in Martha's album) at the Battle of Malvern Hill in Virginia. His mother, Sarah Clothier, traveled to Richmond where he lay in the hospital for three months, nursed him back to health, and brought him back by train to Athens where, about the following March (1863) he was able to step out of bed for the first time since being shot. (All this from George's letter, above.)

Perhaps George's siblings--Sarah, Mary, and John, then 17, 15, and 12, respectively--stayed with Matt and Martha while their mother was in Richmond with George. (The baby, Minnie, would have been 10 months old, and Martha could have used the help of the Clothier kids in taking care of the baby.) We don't know when she received the picture of George and placed it into her album, but it likely carried many fond memories for her as a school chum, friend, and local hero.

Martha's page is located at 5.2--Martha Rosanna "Mattie" Gwin, b. 5 Apr 1843 (but gravestone say: 1844) in Dallas Co.; d. 15 Sep 1923 (but gravestone says 14 Sep) at age 80 heart failure in Perry Co., AL, where she had lived 14 years (according to death certificate); bd. 16 Sep 1923 by J. A. Bice at Mars Hill Cem. near Marion, Perry Co., AL (gravestone is reported to say: "Lewis Independent Cavalry, from 1860 to 1865, CSA, 1833-1873"; lived and died at Perry Ridge community, Hamburg, AL, near Marion; an uncle was a Dr. [must be Isham Griffin] Wilson of Demopolis. [John M. Gwin Note: My double-fourth cousin Barbara Ward, who descends from Martha and second husband Bryant, once thought that Martha was adopted. Thanks to some of Barbara's excellent sleuthing, however, we're all now certain that Martha is the natural daughter Isom and Mary.]

m1. 7 Sep 1860 in Athens, AL, [John M. Gwin Note: This is the Town of Athens in Dallas Co. which existed for only a short period and then died.] for 12+ years to Madison "Matt" Holley (b. 7 Aug 1827, d. 6 Dec. 1872, in Marion, Perry Co., AL; bd. Mars Hill Cem. near Marion, Perry Co., AL.; s/w Burrell Holley ((b. 15 Mar 1797)) and Frances Miller; Matt's brothers were Will Holley and Monroe Holley; Matt's sister was Martha Holley who m. a Mr. Steadman [John M. Gwin Note: Was this a relative of the Rev. John Steadman whom Martha's mother, Mary B. Wilson Gwin, above, married? Indeed, was he the same man?]); Barbara Ward sent the following info on 11 children; there were six children by Matt Holley, (only three--Minnie, Carlos, and Clarence--survived to the 1880 census) and four by B. B. Lester

6.1--Minnie Moore Holley, b. 3 Sep 1861 (but age 17 in the 1880 census); d. in childbirth 21 Oct. 1883; bd. unk.; m. 4 Jan 1883 for nine months to Thomas Judson Lester (b. 1859; b/o Bryant Brown Lester; [There's an interesting note here: Minnie's mother Martha Rosanna Gwin Holley Lester is therefore the sister-in-law AND mother-in-law to Thomas J. Lester, and Tom Lester's brother Bryant is also his father-in-law! But this is the really cute one: Minnie and Bryant are stepdaughter and stepfather, which makes Thomas Minnie's step-uncle, and since she is married to him, that makes her her own step-aunt! :-)]

In 1870, George, Mary, Sarah and John were still living with their mother in Orrville, Dallas Co., AL, along with their servant Jacob.

Yes

He married Mary Eliza Campbell in 1873 in Texas.

By 1880 George had moved to Galveston TX, and married a Mary ?, born abt 1855 in TX. Her parents were from NC. They had a daughter, Estelle P. Clothier, who was born in Sept. 1879. His mother, his siblings Sarah, Mary and John, and the servant Jacob, are all still living with him in Texas.

Yes

Jacob's last name is listed as Clothier as well, by the way. He was born in SC in 1810 and was black, so I assume he was a former slave, from Sarah's childhood home.

Yes

By 1900 George and Mary were in Ellis Co., TX and had several more children. Yes

George's dob is July 1842, Mary's is listed Oct 1853. Their children are listed as:

Y

Stella - Aug. 1879 (I assume this is Estelle)

George - July 1882

Julia (I think) - Oct 1884

Deborah - April 1887 (I think)

Robert - May 1889

Maude - Aug 1891

Y

George's wife Mary E. Campbell is probably the daughter of Andrew M. Campbell, born in NC 1814 per the 1870 census of Galveston, TX. Others in the Andrew Campbell household are his wife, Victoria, b. 1842 in Tennessee, Robert M., who appears to Mary's twin brother, both were born 1853 in Texas, and Alice, b. 1869 in Texas. There are also an Alice E. Williams, b. 1816 in Texas, a Margaret Hawe, b. 1834 in NC, and a William P. Hill, born 1870 in Texas in the home. There is a Hill family right next to the Campbells in the Census.

Andrew M. Campbell is Andrew Monroe Campbell, born 1810 in Mecklenburg Co., (Charlotte) NC. His first wife was Mary Jane Neely, who is probably the mother of George Clothier's wife Mary. She was born in 1821 and died Apr 1864 in Weimer, Colorado Co., TX. Andrew's second wife was Victoria Williams. He married her in 3 Jan 1866 in Fayette Co., TX.

Dorothy Albrecht and Rox Ann Johnson, great-great and great-great-granddaughters, at the dedication of the Republic of Texas medallions for James and Eliza Ann (Morgan) McMillan in April 1989.

FOREWORD

My first recollection of the Osage cemetery was a "cemetery cleaning," probably in 1934. I remember the long row of white cloths filled with food of every description and people with hoes, rakes, and other tools for cleaning. I also remember my Uncle "Mitt" taking me to the back edge of the cemetery to show me a grave of a little girl whose parents were on their way to somewhere when the child became ill and died.

This work started with an old inventory of the cemetery that Bill Stein had in the Nesbitt Memorial Library archives. Then there was a yellow legal pad where he had written names and death dates of those he had found in old Colorado Citizens. I then began looking at my family research, and the records of the old Osage Methodist Church. Finally, I started reading the old Weimar Mercury newspapers for additional information. Thus, it is that we have a listing of many more burials than you will find headstones in the cemetery. Assisting with on site research were members of the Monument Hill Chapter of the Children of the Republic of Texas, Rox Ann Johnson, Aunt Grace Kocurek and George "Doug" Goode. The rest of the information has been gleaned from the Colorado Citizen (later the Colorado County Citizen), Weimar Mercury, Austin American, Eagle Lake Headlight, Banner Press, Osage Methodist Church records on file in the Nesbitt Memorial Library archives, the James and Eliza Ann McMillan Family Bible, and various other resources including descendants of those buried (here) there. (In all of my research, I have not found who that little girl was nor exactly where she was buried.)

A monument with the names and dates of those buried in unmarked graves was erected at the entrance of the cemetery in July 2001. This was a project of the Taylor-McMillan family reunion with help from some of the relatives of those named on the marker.

While reading the old obituaries, I became as interested in them as I was in recording information about the people buried. Thus came the decision to reference the obituaries to the listing of burials. You will note that some are but a sentence or two long; while others go on for columns. But what I hope you will note is all of the extra information about the area, the times, the people and how they arrived at this part of Texas.
