WALLINGFORD FAMILY BIBLE

=====

Joan Wallingford Mickler has two pages (four sides) from a family bible. These notes and transcriptions have been made by her and her brother, Nick Wallingford (nickw@beekeeping.co.nz)

The bible appears to have belonged originally to Nicholas and Mary Ginn, and dates from about the time of Nicholas' death. The entries of Nicholas and Mary and other entries up until 1830 appear to have been entered at the same time, giving an estimated origin of 1830 for the bible.

After that, various handwritings appear. Some events are entered twice in different handwritings. As the pages were filled, entries were squished in at the bottom of columns - not in date order. The bible went to Texas with Evaline and Thomas Ginn. Evaline then, seemingly, re-entered Thomas' birth followed by hers and her children.

After Evaline's death, T.G.'s third wife, Annie Tucker Wallingford (or, perhaps, Thomas) then entered their family. An obvious omission in the bible is the details of T.G.'s very short marriage to Fannie Suggitt, who was not around long enough to even warrant an entry in the bible!

In 1934 our father (John Roland Wallingford, son of John Pinckney Wallingford) retrieved the pages from a shed where his grandmother Annie had stored them in a box. At some point Roland, probably, had the pages laminated, which over time has caused deterioration. This scan and transcription is probably the best we can ever have...
