Dear Albert

now take it steady fella.

This is Roy writing to you. Remember him? He has been promising to write for the past ten months; and now to business.

When last we met I guess I was "Trooper" and cook to the A.E.C.M.R. Well following that and those Vukokohe days I went way north on the very temporary Staff of L.A.F.V. as a sort of batman, QM rouseabout and so on, though still "Trooper". It was while on this that Tiddy presented me on 18/7/42 with a son. Our Roy Ivan. Guess Mum has told you all that. Well Albert, believe me this son is just the boy like nobody's business. We must keep these family names going and Ev did her part
