

punched them off the English Tommies.
There are numerous cracks in your letter I will ignore just now.

Well, Frank has a cup of tea made & as every thing stops for tea I had better finish here, although I must admit it is not much of a letter but at least you will know I still think of you with nice kind thoughts.

I only hope you don't land in Duckland as I am looking forward to a few arguments so until then,

Sincerely

Gylfisi
