Illinois. This was done in compliance with a Mexican law that would not allow a Protestant church to be organized in Texas. The church was established around 1840 near Elkhart, Texas, and is believed to be one of the oldest Protestant churches in Texas. It is still in existence today.

They were married July 5, 1809, in Christian County, Kentucky. LOYD

John Isaac Loyd was born in North Carolina about 1835. Parents were and John Loyd, farmer, born in North Carolina about 1808 and died in Dale County, Alabama after 1880. Other children in this family (all born in N.C.) were: Harriet 1830 —, Mary 1830 —, Maranda 1837 —, William 1839 —, Abner 1841 —, Henry 1842 —, Ann 1846 —. The mother died in North Carolina 1846 - 1850, and the family moved to Alabama at this time as shown in 1850 Dale County, Alabama census.

John Isaac Loyd taken about 1908

John Isaac Loyd was a farmer. About 1856 in Dale County he married Tabbitha Martin, born in South Carolina about 1827 (probably a younger sister of Benjamin W. Martin, great-great-grandfather of Melva Yates Whitehead). John Isaac and younger brother, William M. Loyd, enlisted in the Confederate Army 15 August 1862 in Dale County; both were privates in Company K, 15th Regiment Alabama Infantry.

William was wounded 23 November 1863 in a battle with Federal troops at Campbell Station, Tennessee (now within Knoxville city limits). He lost his left leg due to the wound after being taken prisoner 5 December 1863. He was confined in Union hospitals and prison camps in Knoxville, Nashville, Louisville, and finally Camp Chase, Ohio 9 March 1864. He was at Camp Chase until paroled and transferred to City Point, Virginia in a prisoner exchange 25 February 1865. Census and deed records show he married Faithy Jane Gray about 1865, and later was the jailer at the city jail in Ozark, Alabama.

John Isaac Loyd was wounded in a skirmish with Union troops November 1862, and his right arm was amputated. Records show his army pay as $11.00 monthly; from this he had to pay for shoes. Along with various furloughs he was assigned to General Hospital No. 20, Richmond, Virginia until the end of the war. In the fall of 1872 the John Isaac Loyd family moved from Dale County, Alabama. Also moving at this time were the families of Nelson Hughes and Benjamin W. Martin. All of them settled near Willis in Montgomery County, Texas in December 1872. In 1878 the Loyd family moved from Montgomery County to northeast Waller County, about 13 miles west of Magnolia. The 1880 Waller County census shows the family in Precinct 3, the Fields Store area. John and Tabbitha (Martin) Loyd later made their home with their second son, George W., in Montgomery County on the old Magnolia - Waller road about one-fourth mile east of the Montgomery County - Waller County line.

Tabbitha (Martin) Loyd died at the home of her son, George W., about October 1895. John Isaac Loyd died there 28 May 1910 after a family gathering and ice cream party. Family history says he always had some gold coins, and it was thought there was a hidden cache; after his death many searches were made but nothing was ever found. Both are buried in Fields Store Cemetery, Waller County. There were seven children in the John Isaac Loyd family: (A). James Jackson (Jim) 1858-1953; (B). George Walter 1861-1944; (C). Mary E. 1864-1885; (D). Nancy Emily 1864-1918 (Mary and Nancy were twins); (E). Helen Florence 1866-1933; (F). William Henry 1867-1927 — all born in Dale County, Alabama; and (G). John Nelson 1873-1947, born in Montgomery County three months after the family arrived in Texas. All of the older family members spelled the LOYD name with one "L". However, in the 1880's George W. had his name changed legally to LLOYD. Since then, many of the younger members have changed the spelling to LLOYD.

(A). James Jackson Loyd in 1882 married Sarah Ellen Fowler 1865-1913 (born Grimes County); they lived later in Liberty and Harris Counties. He died in Houston 2 June 1953. For six years after marrying, they lived near Peach and Brushy Creeks in southwest Montgomery County, then moved to what is considered the old home place on the north side of the old Magnolia-Waller road just inside the Montgomery County line ten miles southwest of Magnolia. They built a new home there about 1915, taking down the old house but using the old kitchen for some years; this newer home is still standing. He built a syrup mill on the farm here and operated it for years when sugar cane was grown in this area; the mill was dismantled and moved before 1932. McRAE SCHOOL 1880-1925

McRae School was located 15 miles east of Conroe just off 1484 and Williams Road. A one-room school but the fundamentals, reading, writing and arithmetic were deeply instilled in the children as well as morality and respect.

They had only six months of school. As soon as the crops were harvested in October, school began. The boys and girls took to their books and studies October through March, then, back to helping their parents planting the crops. We never had a counselor, so no one was expelled out of school. We may have had a switching or spanking or stood in the corner, or made a ring on the blackboard and stand with your nose in it.

McRae School was one through seven grades, centrally located between three families, Walding 2 1/2 miles, Reaves 1 1/2 miles, Williams 2 1/2 miles. Mr. Williams chopped a trail through the woods to shorten his route to 1 1/2 miles.

School began at 8:00 a.m. and out at 4:00 p.m. First bell rang a quarter before hand giving the kids a chance not to be tardy. Being on time was also taught constantly for their betterment for lifes journey.

We began roll call, then pledge of allegiance to the flag, sang a song such as America or Faith of Our Fathers.

The teachers in 1917-1925 were Tessie Wise, Mae Hagger, Edna Ochme, Dolly Gore, Ruth (Weisinger) Cable (she taught two years), Mary Irvin Cluxton Legg, Mrs. Charles (Fannie) Reaves, our substitute. The trustees who served were devoted, upright Christian men: J.B. Walding, W.E. Williams, Chas. Reaves, Sam Burnham, and T.F. Bornig (?).

Mr. Williams was always a believer in value and worth of education and when it came time for McRae children to attend high school, the problem of transportation was posed. His avid interest in educational facilities for all the children caused Mr. Williams to turn his attention to the solution of this problem. Thus, it was in 1925 that he "fathered" the beginning of the school bus routes in Conroe Independent School District, and he and the late superintendent, Hulon N. Anderson, tirelessly worked out a bus route to bring the county children to the town schools. With the help of the other parents they seemed to accomplished their tasks or deeds well done.

Mr. Williams drove this school bus from 1925 to 1935. He lived 11 miles east of Conroe. He got into his bus at 6:00 a.m., 42 miles to Conroe High, returning the same 42 miles in the evening, arriving at 6:00 p.m. This being a 1925 T-model Ford bus. Salary started at $65.00 per month.

McRae was noted for spelling matches and box suppers. The way they raised money for the added school supplies, etc.: Every Friday afternoon the parents took out two hours of their time to see how their children had progressed that week. The students were all excited because there was always a special treat. Spelling contest, Geography (george eat old gray at Pa house yesterday. This is the way they taught how to remember your words.), history contest, speech-making, naming capitals of the forty-eight states, and maybe a baseball game if the weather permitted.

The school was on the mail route. The carrier, Mrs. Malcolm Harris or the late Gary Williams. They had lunch with us if they were on schedule.

McRae closed its doors spring of 1925 with Farewell Day of activities, with all parents and students looking forward to a better way of life for the generations to follow.

W.E. William's home burned Oct. 25, 1927 so Conroe Independent School District trustees sold the building to Mr. Williams. His second home burned in September 1962. Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams are deceased. That closed the history of McRae School. The McRae grade-children went to Community School known as Cut-N-Shoot. The number of students varied about 25 — 15 — 10 as the school phased out.

WILLIAM B. ALFORD

William B. Alford (a plantation overseer) was born about 1808 in South Carolina. He married Sarah (Snowden) Thames about 1840 in Alabama; she also was born in South Carolina about 1808. From her first marriage to Wm. Thames, there were at least four Thames children born in Alabama: Henryetta E. 1832 —, Eliza 1834 —, William 1836 —, and Evaline 1838 —. The 1850 Monroe County, Alabama census shows four children from this Alford marriage born in Alabama: Peachman J. 1842 —, Sarah A. 1844 —, Harrison 1846 —, Georgianna 1850 —.

from Monroe County, Alabama. About 1855 Henryetta E. Thames married James Monroe Roberts in Montgomery County (Roberts was a son of Tiry and Rebecca Roberts of Monroe County, Alabama; Tiry and Green Roberts were probably brothers). Mrs. R.A. Bremer of Ft. Worth is a great-granddaughter of the Roberts-Thames marriage.

John P. Alford (some records read "John P.", some read "Peachman J.") married Margaret Mostyn 22 January 1867 in Montgomery County. The 1880 Waller County census shows the family in the Fields Store area; later moved near Magnolia, Montgomery County.

Clayton; Ada 1880-1944 (married Drurie Preston Izard) Julius Peachman 1884-1901 (killed in the woods west of Magnolia by a bull he had roped); Millie Evelyn 1887-1901 (married Jay Page); George Emmett 1889-1972 (married Jessie Riley); William Harry (Big Harry) 1892-1978 (married first Lydia Thomas, second Katy Clarke, third Collier); Effie Lee; Ida Lue; Alice 1882-1970 (married Ned Ogg, son Melton).

Sarah A. Alford married Green Roberts 29 April 1858 in Montgomery County (he was a brother of James M. who married Henryetta Thames; his cousin Thanie E. Roberts married Sarah Alford's brother Harrison in Montgomery County 18 February 1864). Sarah and Green Roberts moved to Falls County sometime after 1860.

Harrison Alford and Thanie Elvira Roberts had four children born at Minks Prairie near present Magnolia, Montgomery County: Sarah (Sallie) Elizabeth 1866-1946, married George Walter Loyd; Lula 1868-1904 (married William Henry Loyd, younger brother of George — see Loyd family for more details); William Harry (Buddy) 1871-1900; and Emma Harriet 1871-1954.
