

Was at Lustleigh today
& its beautiful. Saw Sir Wm's effigy & that's got something out of my system.
It's a lovely little church.
The country-side around is a delight, with lots of little specimens about, many trees just bursting & of course, the primroses!
It's all just like the postcards I've seen of it.
I do hope all of you are well. About 1/3rd of the gravestones in Lustleigh have the name CLAPPER BRIDGE AT POSTBRIDGE, WILLS on DARTMOOR
them. I was amazed. Best love kisses
