Well, this note is still not posted, as I haven't been to town. But I just remembered that I had passed on a bit of info. to Vicki in my last letter which you may not have.

While going through my papers recently I came across a note I had made when I was out at Templeview (must have been c a couple of years ago) I had looked up 'Scotland' for Spiers + Sinclair + noted a few 'Speirs' names. Included was the following:

1809 Agnes SPEIRS

Daughter of James SPEIRS

+ Margaret RODGER

Born 3/9/1809

Ayr, Ballantrae

SO LAG

(Have forgotten what these letters meant)
Now that we know these were Agnes' parents, another bit is confirmed. Don't you think her marriage might have taken place there? What has happened to 'The Dook'?
